

SAMODE
BAGH

“ONE OF THE MOST MEMORABLE VISUAL EXPERIENCES OF RAJASTHAN—THE EXQUISITE SAMODE GARDENS.”

~ HIP HOTELS

Of Nature's Haven and Luxury Glamping

Modeled on the geometric style of a Mughal garden, the Samode Bagh was built 250 years ago and has been historically used by the Samode family for private retreats. Idyllic and unusual, it is more haven than hotel. Be charmed by the lush abundance of trees, plants, flowers in a sanctuary set amidst fountains, waterways and pavilions, as you sit out under luxurious canopied tented ceilings and verandahs and are serenaded by myriad birds that come in happily to meet you in their natural abode.

This is a restful meditative surrounding that bonds you to nature and to yourself. Unwind and play in the beauty of the open spaces while enjoying the royal elegance of Samode and the renowned hospitality and courtesy of the hotel.

Relax Amidst Fountains and Canopied Views

Welcome to Samode Bagh, the garden glamping oasis where the poolside bar, the open lounge in the heritage wing, and the many casual, canopied tree seating areas make for perfect spots to just sit, relax and engage with the quiet of nature. Or watch the warm buzz of the main pavilion. This is the way to live, as we are often told by our guests.

Accommodation

44 Tents, 27 Suite Rooms

Deceptively simple-looking at first glance, the 44 dune-coloured tented tops are spacious, inviting and attractively furnished.

Air-conditioned comfort and all contemporary conveniences in the rooms and en-suite marble bathrooms would have you forget this was a tent, until you glance up at the muslin ceiling printed with floral motifs in gold that reach up to a tented peak. For those seeking a more luxurious stay, the Bagh offers 27 suite rooms, set in the extended section of the Bagh. Fitted with all modern comforts, all have spacious, and airy interiors.

Come alone or come with someone—there's plenty to keep you happy at Samode Bagh.
